In the morning, we will drive to Yol Valley (Vulture canyon), which nestles between the beautiful peaks of Gurvansaikhan of the Three Beauties. The national park is a home for many wild animals such as the Siberian ibexes, Argali, snow leopards, lynxes, foxes, wolves, and especially the Lammergieiers. The valley is the highest flying (4000m), and yet one of the biggest birds in Mongolia with a wingspan of 2-2,5 m. After arrival at the Yol valley, we will take 1-2-hour hike through the valley with has formation of ice starts around December. Overnight at hotel in Dalanzadgad (about 300 kms-About 6hours driving)

Day4. Khongor sand dunes and hiking to the sand dunes (B/L/D)

Today we will drive to Khongor sand dunes, stretch lengthwise about 180 kms. The sands have attractive curves which end in a sharp edge, making wave like patterns on the sand. They continually change shape due to wind and reflect yellow-white colors as the intensity of light changes during the day. As the sand is moved due to winds or is in the process of collapse due to small avalanches, a strong sound is made giving it the name "Singing Sands". We will hike to the top of the sand dunes and make camel riding for an hour. Overnight in nomadic family (about 150 kms-About 4 hours driving)

Day5. Bayanzag or Flaming cliffs and walking around (B/L/D)

Visit to the Bayanzag area. Known as a Flaming Cliffs "Cradle of Dinosaurs" this is where the first nest of dinosaur eggs ever discovered was found in 1922. A site famous for the remains of dinosaur that lived here 60 million years ago. You can walk around where dinosaurs once roamed and see saxaul trees and other classic desert vegetation. After exploring the place, we will drive to Dalanzadgad city and stay at hotel (about 250 kms- About 5 hours driving)
